Bay building booms

Quarter, month gain 216, 486%

Construction in Bay St. Louis more than doubled during the third quarter of 1962 compared to the same period of 1961 based on value of building permits issued.

October continued the trend with five times the value in building permits as October, 1961, showed.

For the July, August and September quarter permits totaling $113,600 were issued in 1962 while only $52,500 were sought in 1961, up 216 percent. In October, 1962, a value of $48,935 in permits were approved compared to $10,050 the preceding year, up 486 per cent.

July permits for $45,900 were for: C.C. McDonald, Inc., residence, Highland Drive; John J. McDonald, residence, Dunbar Avenue; Charles H. Johnson, two residences, Chantilly Terrace; E. P. Larrout, repairs, N. Beach; Cornelius J. Loder, repairs and addition, DeMontuzin Avenue; Dave McDonald, repairs, Austin Lane; and Robert Kemery, repairs, Carroll Avenue.

In August $53,750 in permits went to: P. J. Treutel, residence, St. Charles Street; John Favre, repairs, Main Street; Maurice Artigues, addition, St. Charles Street; Oswald Carver, residence, Citizen Street; Arthur J. Delcuz, garage; Emile Gex, Jr., repairs and remodeling, Main Street; Clair Dedouze, shed, Citizen Street; Nellie Martin, beauty shop, N. Beach; Joe Patrick, repairs, Easterbrook; Dr. Otto J. Mollere, dental clinic, Main Street; A. F. Brown, residence, Thomas Street; Howard Adams, repairs, Uman Avenue; Curtis Achar, residence, Orchard Heights; Maurig's Restaurant, repairs, N. Beach; and Clara Fairman, residence, Sycamore Street.

In September $13,950 were for: Clara Kergsten, repairs, Carroll Avenue; Sylvan J. Loder, Jr., repairs, St. John Street; Touline Nemo, residence, Russell Street; Willard Gavagne, addition, DeMontuzin Avenue; Florence Davenport, porch, Booker Street; C.A. Manning, residence, Harrison Court; LeTorre, Inc., residence, unnamed street; John W. Keller, addition, 408 Uman Avenue; and R. Jacquillard, garage, Citizen Street.

October's $48,935 went to: Nolan S. Lader, residence, Royal Oak Subdivision; Nellie Warren, repairs, St. George Street; Morris A. Bourg, carport, 1517 Dunbar Avenue; H. L. Robinson, residence, 623 N. Beach; William Bibbs, residence, Washington Street; Roland Dillman, residence, Harrison Court; Dr. Paul Fursley, repairs, Uman Avenue; Cornelius J. Lader, residence, DeMontuzin Avenue; Oren Cuevas, remodeling Keller Avenue; Leo Paul Rabateau, car-

occupy planners

Bay St. Louis Planning Commission Tuesday night discussed details of the proposed zoning for the city with Robert S. Bateman and Neil Mossholder, representing Bateman and Associates, Mobile engineers. Among items discussed were problems encountered in strip and spot zoning, the effect zoning might have on business in areas just outside city control, one way streets and parking.

Present were Fred Wagner, chairman, Andy Becker, Henry B. Chapman, E. M. Brignac, members, Mayor John A. Scalf, and Commissioners Warren Traub and J. Cyril Glover. The next regular meeting is scheduled at City Hall at 7:30 p.m., Nov. 27.

Seek win over Kern

Hawk homecoming Fri.

Hancock North Central prepared this week for the first football homecoming in the history of the school. The Hawks tackle a tough Kern School squad at 8 p.m., Friday at North Central.

Last week, the Hawks led at halftime but lost out 27-7 in the final two periods to Pass High in Pass Christian. The Pirates, 6-1 on the season, scored early but North Central went ahead 7-6 near halftime when quarterback Eddie Peterson scored from one yard out to cap a 70-yard drive. Fullback Junior Neebne added the PAT.

Although the Pirates went on to score once more in the third quarter, and added two TDs in the fourth period, the Hawk offense was not outshone. Coach Ezell Lee praised the work of his backfield, especially quarterback Kenny Randall, against Pass High.

This week the Hawks, winless in seven tries, will try to post their first win before an expected large homecoming turnout, and North Central seems to be in real good shape for the game.

Tackle Gerald Page, a top lineman out recently with injuries, resumed practice sessions this week and although not a full strength, Coach Lee expects him to start. The Hawk defense is being geared to stop defense is being geared to stop a good passing Kern quarter-

WAVELAND SHOPPING CENTER - Construction is slated to start early in 1963 on this new shopping center on the east corner of U.S. 90 and Waveland Avenue, according to Mrs. C. B. Mollere and D. E. Wilcox, developers. Designed by R. L. Malvaney and Associates of Jackson, architects and engineers, it will accommodate 14 establishments, including drug, variety, dry goods stores, medical offices, beauty and barber shops. A number of leases already have been signed.

Amendments, Waveland, Beat 1

County votes Tues

Three constitutional amendments on the ballot Tuesday are the only items of county-wide interest in the November general election while a spirited Democratic primary is shaping up for the Waveland town offices and the Beat 1 political scene has lost of life with the run-off of the board of supervisors seat there.

Polling places throughout the county will be open from 7 a.m. until 6 p.m. and election officials advise taking your poll tax receipts or over-age certificates with you. These will be mandatory for Wavelanders in their primary.

The county election commission last Thursday ratified the count in the first Beat 1 super-visory election which puts Constable H. G. Dean and E. G. Kelly, fishing camp operator, into a run-off for the seat vacated by the death of the late Charles A. Russ, Jr.

Commissioners also authorized printing of the ballots for the general election. One will contain the amendments, discussed at length on Page 6 of this issue, the other the officers to be elected by all voters; incumbents, all unopposed, seeking reelection, are Elijah Harvey McGhee, Supreme Court justice from the Southern district of Mississippi; William G.

Hewes, Chancery Court judge; Leslie B. Grant, Circuit Court Judge, and William M. Colmer, 5th Congressional District seat. Beat 1 will have another ballot for the run-off. Voters there and in Beat 2 will elect their member of the county board of education, Charles B. Murphy seeking another term from Beat 1 and Lamar Lee running in Beat

2. Neither has opposition. Heaviest voting is anticipated in Waveland which will conduct its Democratic primary simultaneously in preparation for the December municipal general election. All posts are contested. The ballot, with incumbents listed first, will show:

Waveland PO opening

speaker is Tennessean

WILLIAM H. MCCONNELL

William H. McConnell, Huntington, Tenn., newspaper publisher and assistant to the director of the Memphis region of the Postoffice Department, will be principal speaker for the dedication of Waveland's new Postoffice scheduled for Wednesday, Nov. 14.

Mrs. Thelma Landry, postmistress, said ceremonies at the building on Coleman Avenue will begin at 2:30 p.m. Details have not yet been completed for the entire program.

McConnell began his newspaper career in 1936 and was editor and publisher of the Carroll County Democrat in Huntington from 1946 until Sept. 2, 1961, when he was named to the Postoffice assignment. His civic endeavors have included Lions Club, Huntington Junior Chamber of Commerce, Tennessee Press Assn., all of which he served as president; member of his town's board of aldermen, school board, Elks Lodge, American Legion commander, chairman of the Carroll County Democratic Committee, former chairman of the Carroll County Jury Commission and Bay Scout work. He served 18 months in Europe with the Army during World War II.

Guardsmen still busy at Natchez

Two more contingents of National Guardsmen left last weekend for standby duty on the chin-rim tank raising project at Natchez, six men returned, and a third crew is expected to be called for duty in the next day or so.

Sgt. Wilbert Adams of the 134th Transportation Co., said he understands the operation will continue for another eight or ten days.

Departing Saturday for Natchez were Robert Boudin, and Charles Bourgeois; Specialists Four Michael Cuevas, Fred DeHaan and Alfred Selley; Pfc. Terrence Asher and Gary Karl; and Pvt. Gerald Freeman.

Sgt. John Boudin and Specialist Four Robert Tillman were on Sunday.

FREIGHT CARS JUMP INTO THE BAY - This was the scene Saturday morning as Louisville and Nashville Railroad crews began clearing damage on Bay bridge after three cars on a 175-car freight derailed shortly after midnight. John D. Green, bridge foreman who directed local crews on the clock repair job, said the last car with 100 bales of cotton was brought up Tuesday morning. One tank car filled with lubricating oil and box cars with oil were raised from the water Monday. Two huge cranes were brought from New Orleans to assist with the work. Green attributed the accident to an air line breaking on one car, putting out its brakes and the others jackknifing into it. Service was restored at 2:35 p.m. Saturday after other trains were delayed.

INTO TAG DEADLINE

Long lines of late auto license purchases jammed the city's office Wednesday to beat the 11:59 deadline for purchase of the 1962 tags. Sheriff Gerald Fite said enforcement will be strictly on those without proper license.

HONOR VETERANS

Home Veterans Day, Nov. 11, on a Sunday this year the American Legion will sponsor its annual parade and ceremony at the Courthouse on Monday, Nov. 12. Chairman Fred Fite announced. Paraders will start at 10 a.m. with a parade, every local organization to be represented.

DRAGO GROUP FORMED

A Civil Defense radio communications group organized last Monday at the home of C. K. Kelly, named chairman, with Miss Canova, vice chairman, and Miss Canova, secretary-treasurer, and Joe Daniels, Everett Fite, Charles Richard and Howard Swamy, directors. Any one with a citizen band radio to the Ramond of the call number.

PHILATELISTS TO MEET

An organizational meeting of the Bay Coast Philatelic Society is scheduled at 1:30 p.m. Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Campbell, 101 North Beach Blvd. Anyone interested in stamp collecting, including juniors, is welcome. Refreshments will be served and door prizes offered.

BACK IVS TO PLAY

Stamulaus junior varsity basketball will meet Hlood at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at Stamulaus Gym.

BAY CO SIREN USE

Bay St. Louis of the sirens instead of the Civil Defense horn to signal the noon siren on Wednesday the past two weeks due to the noise resulting from the Cuban-Soviet-U.S. relations. Normally the CD horn is used at this hour, with the fire alarm on other days, but due to the current situation city officials have decided to use the sirens instead of the routine noon siren which might be taken as a false alarm signal.

3 contracts let for MTF

Decrees granted in 11 divorces

Eleven divorce decrees were granted by Chancellor William G. Hewes through noon Wednesday at the current term of Chancery Court. While the session normally would conclude this Friday, court may continue for one day next week because of the size of the docket.

Final decrees were as follows:

Mary Elizabeth Sauter Campbell vs. Harold E. Campbell; Edward P. Curry vs. Lulu Mae Bankson Curry; John L. A. LeGans, III, vs. Carmel Rita LeGans; Pearl Loder vs. Larry Loder; Peggy Joyce Wardlow vs. Bobby Dean Wardlow; James Paul vs. Albert Paul; Edgar M. Loder, Jr. vs. Patricia Ann Reagan Loder; Odile Ramona Carter vs. Arthur Martin Carter; Robert J. O'Toole vs. Marie Louise Walters; O'Toole vs. Marie Louise Walters; Joseph P. Walters, and Revere Rudolph vs. Ethel J. Rudolph, Negro.

The Corps of Engineers sent out advance notices soliciting competitive bids on this work to 184 contractors and material suppliers, furnished plans and specifications on request to four prime contractors and seven subcontractors and material suppliers, and received bids from two contractors. The contract was set aside for award to a small business firm in the interest of assuring such firms a fair share of government procurement.

Marshall Space Flight Center at Huntsville selected the organizations to assist with the sound project.

Three contracts were let in the last week for work at the Mississippi Test Facility, one for two water wells at the site, the other two in connection with the Advanced Atmospheric Scanning Station there.

Layne-Central Co. of Jackson got a $69,375 contract on the wall job, Col. D. A. Raymond, Army District Engineer at Mobile, announced. The firm will drill a test well to a depth of 2,500 feet, obtaining samples from each water bearing formation below 600 feet, then a permanent well to a depth to be determined from the data obtained from the test well.

Wins forestry award

Seal is honored

Leo W. Seal, president of Hancock Bank, was presented the 14th annual Forestry Award at ceremony highlighting the South Mississippi Field Day at Harrison Experimental Forest Oct. 25-26.

The award, an engraved gold watch, was presented by Dan M. Russell, Jr., Bay St. Louis attorney, to Seal "who has devoted his time, money, influence, interest, and efforts in the assistance and practice of forestry in Mississippi."

In his presentation, Russell told the assemblage, "You have selected a man who has dedicated the greater part of his life to the growth and development of Mississippi and particularly to South Mississippi and the coastal region, and he has used his efforts and influence in the development of its natural resources, and particularly, in the forestry segment of the State's economy."

Seal's past activities include having worked in the sawmill of having worked in the sawmill of Loggins in every job from firing boilers to laboring on the tug which towed the lumber to Ship Island for export.

Russell noted Seal's ardent support of all forestry programs in Mississippi and personally supervising planting of trees on his own land and on lands owned by the bank.

Under his leadership, Russell continued, Hancock Bank was one of the pioneer promoters of reforestation, investing in three mechanical planters and making them available without charge to farmers in coastal counties to assist them in planting State-supplied pine seedlings. The bank has also set up a forestry scholarship at Mississippi State University available to Harrison and Hancock County boys.

Teen Times

Once in a while when we're feeling utterly devoid of inspiration we do a bit of reviewing and see what was going on in and around town this time last year—it's really lots of fun and sometimes it's amazing to note changes which have taken place in just 12 months. Prominently displayed on the sports page is a picture of Ronnie Peterson crowning Bay High's '61 homecoming queen Ripple Rausch. Ronnie left for the Marine Corps last week. Ripple is now a freshman at LSU. Bay High won the game 33-0—Bobby Van Calsem, now playing for Pearl River, was one of the offensive stars.

Stanislaus also was their game with Ben Franklin last Oct. 28—Juniors Cadden Jones and Nickie Kingston showed promise which they're fulfilling during the current season.

Other items mentioned the fact that Kathleen Schaefer was selected to attend Girl Scout Round-up in Vermont, also that Jim in my Giametta, Richard Schaefer and Johnny Kramer had completed a successful hunting trip—the Rebel Riders of Lazy Y Seabees were making preparations for their first annual horse show—Bay High Little Tigers completed an undefeated grid schedule—and St. Joseph's Library Club sponsored a most successful Harvest Dinner/Halloween night... so much for the past—let's see what's going on at present.

Pretty blonde Kay Dorich has been chosen by the Bay High football team to reign as queen of homecoming next Friday night—Maid to the queen will be Ellen McDonald, Sue Woods, Sandra Williams and Melvin Luke.

Absolutely perfect weather favored St. Stanislaus fans attending homecoming Saturday afternoon. Festivities began with a parade led by Rockcheer leaders—pretty Allison Trelles helped decorate this float—the band followed, then came the remainder of the cheering group... among those wearing perky red and black costumes were Pam Smith, Mary Tom Ladner, Dorcel Russell and Mary Ann Becker. Queen Sue Holcomb and her court, with escorts, in shiny convertibles, were next—Sue wore a grey and off-white checked suit with matching hat, first maid of honor, Jackie Kingston's green suit was complemented with a tiny feather hat, Kathy Heath wore a bright blue suit and hat, Susan French chose deep gold and Jo Mary Arduques wore grey wool flannel topped off with a gay red velvet pill box... their corsages were enormous white mums. The entourage proceeded to Stanislaus stadium where bleachers were packed with spectators who watched Stanislaus whollop Ben Franklin of New Orleans. The annual dance held in the gym was the final event of the day.

Pamela Sue Wekre, '62 Bay High graduate is now a staff writer for the Student Printer, University of Southern Mississippi's newspaper. Pamela authored an article comparing life in U. S. colleges to that of British students in the first issue of the school year.

Related birthday greetings are on the way to Sue Porter who was 15 on October 23rd... a very big birthday for Sue as she acquired her drivers permit last Thursday. We'll also send Johnny Miller late birthday wishes... he was 14 the 29th of last month... and welcome his sister Cathy Miller to Teen Times officially tomorrow... she'll be 13 on Friday, Nov. 2. Karen Williams also has a birthday on this date—Happy birthday to you—don't get in a stew—we won't be mean, and tell your age—seventeen... (sorry dear little "step-daughter of mine"—that's the only word that would rhyme.)

SJA boarder Teosile De Jean spent Sunday with Louise Bufkin and Mary Lou Herlihy.

Dennis Seuzeneau had a ball in Baton Rouge over the weekend—she attended Homecoming at LSU.

Congratulations to Johnny Gutschalk—the and former St. Joseph student, Carol Galgin, are to be wed Thanksgiving Day. Janet Trapani arrived home Friday to spend the weekend with her parents... Janet likes Stanislaus in Hammond, La., fine, but would like to receive a little more mail from home... just call her mother for correct address.

TREAT COLDS IN ONE HOUR!

ONE OF THESE WILL BE YOUR QUEEN - Candidates for homecoming queen at Valena C. Jones High School are, from left, Annie Marie Haynes, Mary DeJurette, Barba Dorsey and Ernestine Spears. They pass with Albert Mullins, co-captain, and Walton Whavers, captain of the football team which will meet Key High at Ocean Springs in the homecoming game at 2 p.m. Saturday at Stanislaus Stadium.

Elementary honor roll at N. Central lists 91

Ninety-one pupils in the elementary division of Hancock North Central School are listed on the honor roll for the first six weeks of the 1962-63 session. They are:

Peterson, Wilfred Baker, Gregory Shaw, Charlotte Holden, Lawrence Stockstill, Delores Davis, William S. Price, and sixth—Ronnie Ladner, Andrew Clark Ladner, Donny Lynn Lee, Gary Lynn Nealese, Teddy Kent Shaw, Sandra Gayle Shaw, Katherine Ruth Favre, Loretta Peilie Nelson, Thomas Joseph Koenen, Bruce Bennett, Sara Nell Ladner, Ruby Amette Nealese, Luis Andrew Nealese, Wallace Eddie Haas, Camilla Smith, Francis Moran and Ray Edward Favre.

The local Protestant Youth Group now holds bible class each Monday night at 7:30 p.m. Eighteen members attended the first class held at the Pass Christian home of Mrs. Carl Anderson Oct. 18.

Gail Stewart is quite excited about her new hobby—scuba diving. Richard Homes gave her an initial lesson Saturday.

Just to be sure we won't forget we'll welcome Martha Lynch to Teen Times a little in advance... she'll be 13 next Friday, Nov. 9.

KC's PLAN HOE DOWN
Knights of Columbus will sponsor a hoe down dance, complete with a country orchestra, from 9 p.m. Saturday until 1 a.m. Admission will be $1.50 per couple with members and guests welcome.

and more particularly described

Norma Sonier becomes bride of Thomas Karl, jr.

The marriage of Miss Norma Ann Sonier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sonier, to Thomas A. Karl, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl, was solemnized at 2 p.m. Sunday at St. Clare's Catholic Church, Waveland. Rev. John O'Brien heard the vows of the double ring ceremony before the altar flanked with arrangements of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and maiden hair fern. Mrs. Terrence Asher played special selections on the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an elaborate traditional gown of imported embroidered lace over tulle, with appliques of seed pearls on the bodice and skirt ending in a self-train. Her fitted bodice featured a scalloped decollete neckline and long fitted lace sleeves ending in points at the wrists with tiny covered buttons. A veil of illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a sculptured Mrs. McCloskey holds workshop

Mrs. Gordon Gleason, arrangement chairman, presented Mrs. John McCloskey to 18 members of the Bay-Waveland Garden Club at a workshop last Wednesday. Mrs. McCloskey assisted by Mesdames P. E. Porter and H. A. Ozonham completed 49 arrangements which are on display at the Garden Center.

bouquet of white orchids and Stephanotis and a mistle. Miss Rhea Woodcock, maid of honor, and Miss Sandra Woodcock, cousins of the bride, wore identical full length gowns of pale blue chiffon with cap sleeves, draped bodices and full skirt with overskirts of the same material. Their tiny matching headpieces were trimmed with seed pearls, their bouquets, yellow chrysanthemums.

David Karl was his brother's best man, Norman Sonier, brother of the bride was groomsmen. Another brother, Lauren Sonier, and Otto Bourgeois were ushers. A reception at the Jaycee Hall followed the ceremony. The bride's table was covered with a white crocheted cloth. White chrysanthemums and maiden hair fern surrounded the four dined wedding cake. The table was flanked by two large baskets of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and greenery. Similar arrangements adorned two large serving tables. Mrs. Sonier received in black crepe with matching velvet toques. Mrs. Karl chose a winter wool dress of purple with white hat and black accessories. Their cottages were white carnations.

For travelling on honeymoon in Baton Rouge, La., the bride wore a two-piece blue suit, matching hat and black accessories, with the orchids from her bridal bouquet. Upon their return they will be at home on Keller Avenue in Bay St. Louis.

BETROTHED - Of local interest is the engagement of Miss Suzanne Marie Maloney, daughter of Mrs. Paul Hebert Maloney, Jr., and Mr. Maloney of New Orleans and Waveland, to Raul, Glenn Curtis House, Jr., USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. House of Houston, Tex. A Dec. 22 wedding is planned.

Big jewel theft probe extends here

Alarmed by a call from Melvin Conrad, March Bay resident, who found two empty jewelry cases by the side of the Bay Monday night, members of Sheriff Gerald V. Price's force spent much of Tuesday morning combing the beachfront for lost items from a $30,000 gem theft in New Orleans.

Chief Deputy Gerald V. Price, Jr., reported two men were being held in the county jail for questioning and fingerprinting at the request of Louisiana authorities as possible suspects in the crime. He said they were picked up Monday night by Deputy Gerald Freeman at the Phillips 66 station Main Street. One is from Nebraska, the other from California, aged 19 and 30.

Conrad noticed the two sample cases near the second pier north of the bridge and called the sheriff's office about 8:15 p.m. Monday. Freeman notified New Orleans authorities and Milton M. Specht of Atlanta, Ga., 70, spokesman, identified them as the men who stole from his New Orleans hotel room earlier this city.

Freeman and Price with flashlight in hand continued to search in the area until almost 4 a.m. and located three jewelry boxes floating in the water near Bay-Waveland Yacht Club. They are investigating the DANTAGIAN SELLS BEACH HOME - This lovely two story home on Beach Blvd. and Nicholson Avenue in Waveland, formerly owned by Mrs. Bea C. Wagner, has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Viguerie. Peterson resigned as king and queen with Little Redrick Lee and Rhonda Lachner of the first grade as the Halloween prince and princess. Jody Knight and Owen Shaw of grade four-A were the duke and duchess. They were crowned by their homeroom teachers.

An estimated 350 people filled the Logtown gym for that festive affair, many of those evicted from the Gainesville area with the NASA project coming back for the fun.

The Country Store booth with Mrs. Bencie Casanova and Mrs. Oscar Brelend, sales ladies dressed in old-fashioned style, won the prize for the best decorations, a rocking chair and old wood-burning heater among the other items of the century fixtures.

Costume winners were Mrs. Prentiss Lott, Abby Gale Burge and Brenda Buffin.

THE VOTERS OF WAVELAND

I am not offering a platform, I hope to be elected Mayor of Waveland on my reputation and my past public office.

After completing serving my twentieth year as an active member of the most successful and progressive administration Waveland has ever had. As a member of this administration I have done my part in serving the people well, with the cooperation of public funds.

In the upcoming election of public funds, I will continue to serve the people, and I will continue to serve the people in ways which will be to the benefit of the people.

I hereby solicit your vote for me and the present officials.

Polly At Waveland

Here's hoping that every one had a hilarious Halloween, an appropriate All Saints Day (whatever that might be) and that you have already ordered your Thanksgiving turkeys—which will leave you free to concentrate on the subject at hand—Christmas shopping—this bit of thinking was brought on by two entirely separate incidents—first our Saturday shambler was brought to an abrupt halt when daughter Cathie decided it was about time to haul out Yuletide records and Blag was crooning Adele's "Fidelity" at 8 a.m. . . when we reluctantly arrived at the office we spied a very fancy handout extolling the merits of Early American gifts—now means may purchase pine stined furniture to blend with the decor of any room in the house. . . as long as it's E. A. . . And that's only the beginning—towels, rugs, kitchen accessories, light switch plates in this style, are also available—and if you really want to go all out and have your bathroom compatible with the rest of your home, accoutrements for certain necessary plumbing fixtures, emblazoned with a bronze eagle may be purchased for a measly $8.95. . . hope we've been of some small help with the above suggestions—over back to Nov. 1, and current events.

Gladys Betha not only returned from her extended vacation looking rested and relaxed, she's also sporting a very sophisticated new tipped hair-do.

Birthday tidings

Little John Neta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Neta celebrated her second birthday at a large party at her Sarno Avenue home Sunday October 21. Thirty five children and some of their parents helped the young lady enjoy the elaborate party and cake.

Birthday greetings go to Yvonne Virgilio who celebrated Sunday, Oct. 28. Husband Edna gifted her with a lovely white undrinkable—or are they unimpeachable?? Whether or no, we just did Edna Rahr and Bonita Price appeared a bit less enthusiastic than respective husbands, James and Gerald, when they set out to meet the gentlemen in the woods Friday night. . . the hunter's wanted to get in their beds early as squirrel season opened, Saturday a.m., so camped overnight—don't know how they fared, but we know it must have been coolish to say the least, although Clara Perrezo reported counting the area and noted that most of the mosquitoes had disappeared.

Laura Dorich is among proud new car owners—David Treacht is also driving a lovely new silver grey automobile.

If Bill Goetzle's car is a true example of Buddy Hovey and Fred De Haen's auto painting talents this pair should do well in their new field of endeavor.

Louise (Mrs. Dave) Merthey returned to her Farrar Lane home Thursday having been released from the Ear, Eye, Nose and Throat Hospital in the Crescent City after undergoing surgery. Margie Anderson and Elaine Davis dropped in to welcome her home and report that she's looking fine and well on the road to complete recovery.

Del Wilson is enjoying the privilage of being just about the most popular and talked about man in town at present. . . as the cold war threatened to warm up last week just about everyone around showed more than a little interest in his fallow chatter—a number of sidewalk superintendents watched the concrete pouring Saturday.

Bay side of the news

Imagine our surprise to discover that two of our very good friends, Mrs. Charles Hays and Baby Love Bourgeois, were sharing the same room (eight), identical ailments and physicians in Hancock General. . . we'll send very special get well wishes to the 'girls' . . . who were so busy voicing appreciation of wonderful treatment they received, that neither seemed in the least concerned about approaching surgery. 'Coach' Wilmer Seymour has the beginning of his own football team—wife, Mary Francis, gave birth to their first child last Wednesday night—a boy who should be large enough for spring training come April if his birth weight, 9 pounds, 14 ounces, means anything. . . he is to be christened Stephen Irvin—Irvin being the name of both grandfathers, Irvin Lacher and Seymour. The derailment of a L and N freight on the Bay bridge early Saturday caused just about the most excitement locally since the '47 hurricane. . . a troop train held up for almost a day due to the mishap attracted sightseers in droves—the stranded soldiers were invited to attend the Stanislaus game, but hoped to be on their way before the tilt fed—anyway, it was a most hospitable gesture.

Gladys (Mrs. Lamar) Bassett of Pascagoula spent last weekend with her parents, the Henry Capdeponts. . . Gladys came to be on hand to greet niece Carol Higgins on her arrival from Anchorage, Alaska, last Friday.

We can't send get well wishes to all current cold sufferers—but we'll mention a couple—Joan Gleim was confined to her home Monday with a terrible cold. . . Rubie Bordages has also been under the weather with this ailment, as has Al Lambka.

Hope you're feeling better greetings are in order for Ray Gordon who was hospitalized Saturday.

Golden agers organize

Acting president and membership chairman of the Golden Age Club, Betty Hill, announces the second meeting of this group will be at Bay Bowling Center Friday at 1:30 p.m. Betty has contacted a number of prospective members by phone, but it's impossible to call each and every one who might be interested—so please consider this a written invitation and do your best to attend this second session—if you have no transportation just call the Echo HO 7-5474 between 10 a.m. and noon Friday and we'll see that you have a ride to and from the Bowling Center.

Happy birthday Mercedes Spahr, Jr. . . her parents Mercedes and Bob feted her at a surprise party at their Clearmont Harbor home Monday night Oct. 23.

New tv stars

We now have three new television personalities in our midst. . . guess the kiddies weren't going to let grown-ups steal all of the thunder—Jeanine and Timmy Gianelloni and Chip Blanchard were guests of The Great MacNutt on WDSU tv Monday afternoon.

Bertha (Mrs. Warren) Hale surprised Bay buddies Sunday by appearing in town when everyone thought she'd be in the hospital undergoing surgery. . . a severe cold caused postponement of the operation and she took advantage of the respite to enjoy a bit of socializing.

Louise report on the Rahr-Price hunting expedition—they only killed one squirrel, but had an absolutely wonderful time. . . Edna Debbie and Rusty, for whom the trip was planned, wanted to remain in the woods as camp day—they were apparently most impressed by the bundle which they kept going by repeated assurances into the brush for wood—the gale, Edith and Emelda are now confirmed Paul Ramsey and can't wait for the next opportunity to battle life in the rough.

Alexander Collier, perhaps better known as 'Uncle Sonny' was the weekend guest of niece Yvonne Virgilio and husband Edna.

A very happy if somewhat belated birthday wish goes to Belle Penrose who sported orchids all over the place last Saturday, Oct. 27.

MRS. JOSEPH V. PULIZZANO

It was wonderful to see Edna Wilson around again. . . she's been just about everywhere except Waveland for the past six weeks.

Lovely wedding

Nanna Sander was a lovely bride in her elaborate lace gown when she and Tommy Karl were wed Sunday at St. Clare's Parish Hall. . . We can't resist the temptation to brag just a tiny bit about lovely attendees (and incidentally they just happen to be nice) Elaine and Sandra Woodcock, who were adorable in identical pale blue frocks. The Joyce hall was elaborately decorated with a profusion of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and greenery for the reception which followed the ceremony—it was quite an affair and the family group which drew admiring glances from everyone was the Robert (Buck) Lacher crew—(He's Ben Sander's brother)—he, Mary and their six and one-third children made quite a picture. . . the oldest isn't quite six (a set of twins makes this statistically possible) and amazingly, mamma always looks exactly as if she had stepped from a page of a high fashion magazine. Some of those enjoying delicious chicken salad and pimiento sandwiches, olives, petit fours, cake, punch, etc., etc., included Ann Langley, Martha Lynch, Dianne Karl, Betty, Willie, Alvin and Elaine Bourgeois, Lucille Carr, Claire and Fred Bourgeois, Aralea and Buck Woodcock, Lottie and Garfield Lacher and son Louis who's sporting either a beak or Casper (beak is probably the better choice at present) beard; Audrey Favre, Ramona, Malvin and Little Kelly Lacher, Junior Bordages, the L. A. Duboissons of Long Beach, who incidentally now have a camp on the Jordan River; Claire and Otto Bourgeois and their two small sons, Dot Weidmann and daughter Debbie; Catherine Mayer and Cheryl. . . their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Bourgeois, Tony Jr. and Janet (can never remember her last name, but can't forget her lovely pink smile); Catherine and Bradley Mazurkows and lovely daughter Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Vincent and of course members of both families. The happy couple returned from their wedding trip late Tuesday and are at home on Keller Street.

Coast garden group meets here Friday

Bay-Waveland and Town and Country Garden Clubs will host for the Coast Council of Garden Clubs Friday.

A Dutch treat buffet luncheon will be served at 12 noon at Little Mirador, 207 St. Charles what happens to so many of them. . . many appear to have been struck by cars, but if that's the case, where do the signs disappear to?? Solid metal objects can't just vanish into thin air—and one of the most dangerous corners in Waveland has one missing—intersection of St. Joseph Street and Jeff Davis. . . only the bare post remains—if this is someone's idea of a joke, it's distinctly unfunny!

On sports front

Oscar Bellie is justifiably proud of the 16 pound redfish he caught while fishing with son Teddy off the bridge last Friday—this joyous occasion was only saddened by the fact that he didn't think to have a picture taken until he was just about through cleaning his catch.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY—A solitary duck floating so lazily upon the waves he appeared to be a decoy—flow-cr bedecked neatly moved comarities, small children precariously dangling from the pipes above swings in the school yard and the weird little town of the work trains going to and from the railroad bridge.

Pulizzano-Feliu nuptials spoken in New Orleans

Holy Trinity Catholic Church in New Orleans was the scene of the wedding at 2 p.m. Sunday of Miss Diane Elizabeth Feliu, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Feliu of Metairie, and Joseph V. Pulizzano, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pulizzano of Bay St. Louis.

Rev. M. Roth performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decked with arrangements of roses, gladioli and palms. Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk and sequins and scalloped at the décolletage. The fitted sleeves of lace ended in points at the wrist and the full skirt was trimmed with beaded appliques of lace on the flowing train of the overskirt. Her elbow-length veil of illusion was held in place by a crown of pearls and crystals. Her long cascade bouquet was of tiny white button pampous and lilies of the valley centered with a white orchid.

Miss Margaret Pulizzano of Bay St. Louis was maid of honor and Mrs. Beverly Perrezo of New Orleans was matron of honor. Other attendants were Miss Charlette Tremblant, Mrs. Mary Ann Feliu, both of New Orleans, Miss Freda Perrezo of Bay St. Louis and Miss Charlotte Ann Foster of Arabi.

They were attired in elegant green crystal satin sheaths with a bell shaped satin overskirt. They carried crescent shaped bouquets of bronze daisies and crocus leaves with beaded streamers and wore crowns of green satin wound with pearls and topped with green rosebuds centered with pearls.

John K. Feliu of Metairie was best man and groomsmen were Henry Pulizzano, Jr., Felician Bugard, Jack Perrezo, all of Bay St. Louis, and Glenn Feliu of Metairie. Ushers were Paul Feliu of Metairie and L. J. Perrezo of New Orleans. A reception followed at Lachar's in New Orleans.

When the couple left on their wedding trip to Mexico City the St. home of Mrs. Ruth Woods Lachar.

The general meeting will begin at 2 p.m. at the Garden Center, to be concluded with a tea.

You could lose every cent you have by having the wrong insurance on your car or home!

After you have an accident, it may be too late to discover you don't have enough liability insurance. In the United States last year, hundreds of car owners, most of them average people who consider themselves good drivers, had individual liability judgments exceeding $100,000 rendered against them. How much liability insurance do you have?

After you have a fire, it's too late to wish your home insurance was up-to-date. If inflation has increased the worth of your home without your insurance being correspondingly increased, you may have to pay part of the loss out of your own pocket.

Protection Week

May we suggest you check up on your insurance right away? This week, November 4-10, is Protection Week, a time for car owners, home owners, and businessmen to make sure they're really protected by insurance.

We'll be glad to analyze your insurance—to appraise accurately the present worth of your home—without charge. Call us today.

High school, college, and professional football all have passed the midway point in '62, and in many cases conference races are just as unpredictable as before the start of the season. As always, there have been upsets; in college, the surprise pick of almost everybody, Ohio State, has lost out to Michigan. In high school the favorite for the Gulf Coast Conference crown, Long Beach, isn't even a contender - in the professional ranks, underdog Washington, long a doormat for the other National Football League clubs, has suddenly burst into the title picture.

We'll look first at college grid circles this week. For five years now LSU and Ole Miss have entered their annual football game as among the top teams in the land. Ole Miss has an undefeated record every year until the Bayou Bengals get hold of 'em.

Saturday night, the Rebs, boasting a 5-0 record, an offense that has piled up 131 points, and a defense that has yielded only 14, tackle LSU, unbeaten but once-tied, whose goal line also has been crossed only twice in six games.

Both are contenders for the Southeastern Conference crown, neither having a mar in loop play. The only team to blemish the Tigers' record, Rice, tied Texas's nation-wide leaders last Saturday. The winner will surely be invited to the bowl game of their choice.

Several local fans plan to attend the game in Heartbreak Hollow (for Rebel fans anyway), and it appears they will see, as usual, LSU's vaunted rushing attack battle the passing arm of an Ole Miss quarterback.

The two teams are evenly matched—which means LSU, behind 68,000 roaring fans who someday will shake the stadium down, has to be three-point favorite. We'll go with the Tigers, giving them even one more point, 7-3.

Picking an upset

In other SEC activity, Alabama's high-rated Crimson Tide invades Starkville to play the Mississippi State Maroons. State has been pointing for this game, so much they forgot all about Memphis State last week. Anyhow, we still don't think Bear Bryant's boys belong at the top of the ladder. We like Mississippi State in an upset.

Auburn's undefeated Tigers meet Florida's shock-up Gators and our pick to remain unscathed is Auburn, Georgia Tech is the choice to down Duke, Miami gets the call over Kentucky, Tulane (with a gulp) will finally win at the expense of VPI, Tennessee will down Wake Forest, and Vanderbilt, realizing they can't compete down South, gets the nod over Boston College.

Elsewhere, it'll be Arkansas over Texas A and M, Texas over SMU, Northwestern over Indiana, Southern California over Washington in a doozy (thanks, Hazel), Ohio State over Iowa, Michigan State over Minnesota, Wisconsin over Michigan, Army over Boston U., UCLA over California, Navy over Notre Dame, Rice over Texas Tech, and Penn State over Maryland.

Bermond is bowling champ

Vernon Bermond won the right to represent Bay Bowling Center in the Mississippi BPAA tournament last weekend, rolling 1,569 for eight games, a hefty 196 average. Bermond easily out-distanced the rest of the field. Red Reimke and Merlin Markel, last two to bowl, finished second and third, respectively.

Bay Bowl's "Junior Don Carter," Tommy Humphreys, came up with a spectacular 248 game, highest individual teen-age total ever rolled at the local establishment Sunday during the Junior Scratch League. Humphreys started his game with three strikes, was open in the fourth frame, then strung six in a row before missing on his second ball in the tenth.

Rocks come to life

St. Stanislaus survived a horrendous start in their Saturday afternoon homecoming clash with Benjamin Franklin High School before suddenly turning from showing a "who cares?" attitude to displaying the competitive spirit of two weeks before against Notre Dame of Biloxi.

The Rocks were down 14-0 early in the game and Ben Franklin had scored down on the Stanislaus one-yard line. A penalty cost Ben Franklin a third touchdown, however, and the Rocks, led by Paul Fasullo, fourth-string tailback behind Dusty Rhodes, Colden Jones and Vic Jorda most of the season, took over. Fasullo saw early season action at wingback for Coach Billy Murphy's squad, but his tailback performance was a complete surprise.

Stanislaus, under Murphy, has looked much better the past three weeks. An offense which actually had a minus net yardage in one or more games, has scored seven touchdowns in the last three games. The Rocks ended their home season with a 3-1 slate, and we look for Stanislaus to cause Moss Point, a Big Fight school, plenty of trouble Friday night.

About that Tiger loss

Bay High didn't fare as well last weekend. The Tigers went to Poplarville expecting a win, but the Hornets had other ideas. The Tigers dropped a 13-6 decision and it marked the first time in 1962 a team had come close to outplaying Coach Lance Lumpkin's 11.

The Tigers need no excuses - everybody who saw the game knew Bay High was below form - but it is hard to win without several of your star players. Halfback Don Saucier, scoring leader with 54 points, didn't suit out; halfback Dick Watts was injured early in the contest; halfback J. P. Compretta was injured early in the second half; and Frank Miller played much of the time on a bad ankle and was below usual strength; and end Davey Smith is out for the season with back injuries.

This week the Tigers face a Slidell team that last week whipped Notre Dame 46-12. Local fans who saw the Rebels play Stanislaus know that it takes a good team to score 46 points on them. Slidell has one halfback, Eddie Bowden, who last week scored five touchdowns against Notre Dame. Slidell, with a 6-2 record, should give the locals a real test. Lumpkin may not take any chances with key players, preparing for the following week's conference championship game against Ocean Springs.

Poplarville upsets fumbling Bay High

Fumble-plagued Bay High was outplayed for the first time this season Friday night, losing a 13-6 upset decision to underdog Poplarville at Pearl River Junior College Stadium.

The Tigers just didn't have it Friday, apparently suffering a case of overconfidence after winning decisively from St. Martin the previous week in an important Gulf Coast Conference game. The injury-riddled Bengals threatened throughout the game, but Poplarville had the scoring punch needed.

The Hornets scored the second time they had the ball, driving 43 yards after a recovered fumble. Halfback Ray Magee passed to end Wilbur Riley for the touchdown from one yard out and halfback James Pinkerton, a tremendous runner for Poplarville and a sure-fire college prospect, punted for the PAT.

Bay High threatened immediately when end Richard Schaefer returned the short Poplarville kickoff to the Hornet 36 and was tackled by the last possible man. Fullback Charley Broadland was the sparkplug in the ensuing drive, stopped at the Poplarville two yard line when the Tigers missed a first down by inches.

The Hornets threatened early in the second quarter, blocking a punt and recovering at the BHS 21. The Tiger defenses dug in, however, pushing Poplarville back with the aid of a 15 yard penalty. Another fumble gave the horns a scoring opportunity again seconds later, but they couldn't move.

Coach Lance Lumpkin's Tigers scored their only touchdown the first time they got their hands on the ball in the second half. They consumed over half the period, running 13 plays and covering 63 yards in the touchdown march, capped by a five yard pass from quarterback Johnny Panton to Schaefer. Fullback Stanley Burch and halfback J. P. Compretta picked up most of the yardage, but the Tigers suffered a costly blow when Compretta received a leg injury and was forced out of action. Bay High was already playing without the other first-string halfback, who spent two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Jake Schwander.

Miss Alice Lytell celebrated her 15th birthday at a family gathering, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lytell.

Mr. and Mrs. Blair Johnson of New Orleans spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson.

PLAN APRON SALE
Women of Christ Episcopal Church will have an apron sale Friday and Saturday at Jimmy ing leader Don Saucier, also felled with a leg injury. Burch's run for the all-important extra point missed.

The Hornets quickly upped their lead. Driving 72 yards after the Bay High kickoff, Pinkerton carried eight straight times for 70 of the yards and a score. The Poplarville fullback missed the PAT on a line smash. The TD came on the final play of the fourth quarter.

Bay High dominated the fourth period, but couldn't score. Lumpkin's charges drove to the Poplarville 28 only to lose possession on a pass interception, fumbled away another opportunity two minutes later on the Hornet 36, and again lost the ball via the interception route in the final seconds of play.

Poplarville rolled up 201 rushing yards compared to the Tigers' 170. Passing, the Hornets were 3-7 for 40 yards and had none intercepted. The Bay Bengals were 4-10 for 29 yards, and two Tiger aerials were picked off. Halfback Tim Fagen led Bay High ball carriers with 35 yards in nine carries, most of which were picked up on one 31 yard carry. Fullbacks Burch and Broadland followed with 47 and 28 yards, unofficially.

Friday night Bay High travels to Slidell for their only out-of-state game this season.

HARC hears progress at children's center

Reports on enrollment at the Children's Center and success of the recent membership drive occupied the Hancock Area, for Reformed Children at its October meeting last Thursday.

Mrs. Irma Baker, director of the center, reported 15 children regularly attend classes on the three days it is open. Their routine includes the pledge of allegiance to the flag, recitation of the motto, simple songs and learning the alphabet and numbers. Present project is making Christmas gifts for their parents.

Joyce had a telephone installed at the center with proceeds from their recent benefit concert. President Warren Carter reported.

Mrs. Joseph Schmitt, membership drive chairman, has turned in more than $200, it was reported by Mrs. Edna Depree, treasurer.

Resignation of Mrs. Bertha Grant as secretary was accepted with regret and Mrs. Gerald S. Kennedy was named to replace her. Mrs. Grant is now active with the American Red Cross.

It was voted to secure certificates to be presented voluntarily in recognition of their hours.

Wheatley infant christened Sunday

Gary Francis Wheatley, Jr., infant son of L. (Ig) and Mrs. Wheatley, was christened Sunday afternoon at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church with Rev. Michael Kelly officiating. Sponsors were L. and Mrs. Harold L. Stinson of Jacksonville, Fla.

Also coming for the occasion were the infant's aunt, Mrs. Charles A. Felgley, Dr. Felgley and children, Steve and Kath, of Baton Rouge. They were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Mitchell, at their Carroll Avenue home.
